

Acceptance Test: Testing the Text-To-Speech feature

User Story on Issue #13

Tester Name: Kevin Lo

Description: Verify that the user can successfully listen to the whole article using the Text-To-Speech button.

Preconditions: The Wikipedia app have been already downloaded into the smartphone. The smartphone have a built-in speaker and the volume has been set higher than 1. Additionally, the user must be in the article page.

Step #	Step for test	Expected Result	Actual Result	Status
1	Clicks on the Text-To-Speech button	The user should hear the article's description and what has been read out loud must match word by word.	The user can indeed hear the article's description word by word.	PASSED